Public Notice

Re: Meeting of the State Terrorism Threat Assessment Advisory Group (STTAAG) August 20, 2009

Notice to the Public:

In accordance with its Charter, the STTAAG reviews and comments upon information sharing strategy, structure and procedures and other matters presented by the Executive Sponsors, to ensure respect for the civil liberties of California residents and consistency with American values regarding privacy, tolerance and autonomy, particularly as these principles are defined in applicable Constitutional provisions, Federal laws and regulations, and State laws and regulations. It provides advice on whether strategies, structures, and procedures strike the appropriate balance between ensuring our collective security and respecting our individual liberties.

The STTAAG also provides independent counsel to the Executive Sponsors on the development and implementation of plans to educate and inform California residents on the policies, plans, strategies and actions being implemented by California Emergency Management Agency.

The next meeting of the STTAAG is scheduled as follows:

Thursday, August 20, 2009
1:00 PM to 3:30 PM
California Emergency Management Agency
Multi-Purpose Room 1
